Nationals Handed Zeros Again by the White Sox

Windy City Club Takes Third TIGERS AGAIN HAND Game of Series from Griffmen, 3 to 0.

ERRORS PROVE COSTLY

By WILLIAM PEET.

Chicago, June 12.-Down the soapy chute tumbled the Nationals again. Chicago making it three wins in a row this afternoon, coming across with another

There seems to be no possible way to get the Griffmen back into their winning stride, and the Washington players for the first time today showed plainly that they were discouraged-their work was below par and the old "Pep" was con-spicuous by his absence. Gallia opposed Benz and while Bert

Eddie Collins scoring in one Instance from second base on a passed ball.

Benz was a bit wild and his support was not of the best, but he was in-

Everything worked lovely except the hit, which did not materialize, as Foster swung at the ball and missed, consequently Schalk had little trouble turning back Morgan at third base. Foster then waited and was rewarded with a base on balls. McBride forced Foster at second and Jamieson ended the inning with a fly to John Collins.

Had Griff not ordered the hit and run which missed fire, the Griffmen would have put over a marker in the sixth inning, as McBride's grounder to Terry, which forced Foster at second, would have brotight in Morgan from third.

Gallia prohibited runs by the enemy until the fifth, when with one down, Terry doubled to left. Benz fanned. J. Collins singled to left. Collins singled to left and Shanks pegging to the plate in an attempt to snuff out Terry, slammed the ball over Henry's

Four White Sox singles in the sixth. Runs-Noyes, Hasselbush, McCornell (2), Hughes, Four White Sox singles in the sixth, three of them being rather scratchy, together with a passed ball and fumble by Foster, added two more runs. Eddle Collins opened the inning by beating out a badly bounding grounder to McBride. Ness sacrificed and when one of Gallia's shoots got away from Henry, the ball rolling to the grand stand, Collins came all the way home from second base. Jackson moved up to third on the play and scored a minute later when Schalk cored a minute later when Schalk the ball between McBride and Foster.

Jim Shaw twirled the eighth inning Jim Shaw twiried the eighth the form of the Nationals, as Williams had previously been sent up to pinch hit for Galla. The White Sox could do nothing with Shaw's speedy shoots. Score:

Eddle Foster will be dropped down several notches in the batting order for tomorrow's game and Rondeau will replace Shanks in left field. Foster's hand still bothers him and he cannot use a bat properly. Shanks has not made a hit during the last two games and Griffith is justified in using Rondeau.
